

INAUGURAL SPORTS & EXERCISE MEDICINE STUDENT SYMPOSIUM

SATURDAY 19TH SEPTEMBER 2015 – VENUE: RCSI 2PM-4PM
(part of FSEM 12th Annual Scientific Conference – 17/18/19 September 2015)

“SPORTS INJURIES AND ILLNESS IN YOUNG PEOPLE – A COMPLETE PICTURE”

Our inaugural Student Symposium will take place on the afternoon of Saturday 19th September 2015 in RCSI, as part of the Faculty of Sports and Exercise Medicine 12th Annual Scientific Conference. Our symposium entitled “Inspiring the next generation” will be taking place in the O’Flanagan’s Lecture Theatre between 2pm and 4pm.

Four speakers have been confirmed for this session:
Prof Tim Noakes – “My career in Sports and Exercise Medicine”
Mr Conor Gissane – “Concussion Assessment Tools”
Mr Karl Denvir – “How I treat a hamstring tear from SL to R2P”
Mr Andrew Watson – “Pitchside preparation – what to have and how to use it – practical advice”

The Symposium will be followed by the conference closing debate on “Solving Ireland’s Childhood Obesity Problem”, which will be chaired by our Honorary Fellow, Prof Donal O’Shea.

Are you an undergraduate student in medicine, physiotherapy, or another related discipline?
